USPA NEWS - Memphis Bleek Hosts Private "Apartment 3D" Listening Party in Manhattan

On June 3, Memphis Bleek held an exclusive listening party for his upcoming album Apartment 3D at Mazor Lounge in Manhattan. The event, hosted by YNVS and sponsored by D'Ussé, offered signature drinks curated around Bleek, setting the tone for a night full of nostalgia and new energy.

The music brought back that classic sound we grew up on—proving Bleek hasn't lost a step. He's got something for everyone, especially the ladies, with a smooth track called On My Way. For the fellas, Steal Rock stood out with its raw Brooklyn energy.

The lounge was packed with supporters and familiar faces, including Kyah Baby, Johnny Nunez, and Maino. The vibe was upscale, authentic, and filled with love for hip-hop.

Memphis Bleek's Apartment 3D is shaping up to be a solid comeback. Be sure to follow and support—it's the sound we've been missing.

On June 3, Memphis Bleek hosted a private listening party for his new album Apartment 3D at Mazor Lounge in Manhattan. The event, organized by YNVS and sponsored by D'Ussé, featured drinks inspired by Bleek, setting the tone for a night full of nostalgia and fresh energy. The room was packed with industry insiders, friends, and real hip-hop supporters.

The music gave off that classic vibe—Bleek hasn't lost his step. He's got something for everyone, with On My Way for the ladies and Steal Rock, a gritty Brooklyn anthem, for the fellas. His delivery was sharp, and the sound stayed true to his roots.

Special guests like Kyah Baby, Johnny Nunez, and Maino showed up to support. The vibe was strong, with good energy, familiar faces, and lots of love in the building.

Bleek also announced his new podcast coming to the Drink Champs platform, where he'll discuss real topics and bring on industry friends to share stories fans have been waiting to hear.

Apartment 3D is a confident return—classic, raw, and authentic

The crowd was energetic and engaged—true fans who showed up to celebrate Bleek and his return. We spoke with a few attendees throughout the night, and the feedback on Apartment 3D was all love. Fans said the project felt like a perfect mix of classic Bleek and today's sound. One guest even mentioned it brought back memories of growing up on Roc-A-Fella music, but with a fresh twist.

We also had a quick chat with Bleek's manager, who revealed that this is just the beginning. He hinted at a few surprises in the works—more music, possible collaborations, and even some visual content on the way. There's definitely more to come, so fans should stay tuned.

Big props to YNVS for how well the night was executed. From the carefully selected guest list to the overall vibe and flow, they did an amazing job pulling the event together. It wasn't just a party—it was a statement. Bleek is back, and he's moving with purpose. This era is his, and he's far from done.
